

All the world’s a stage,
And all the men and women merely players
(Shakespeare: As you like it)

What we are:

- Have you ever dreamt of being a member of a theatre ensemble and of mesmerizing an audience with your captivating performance?
- Do you like acting or taking on different roles?
- Are you good at and fluent in English or do you want to become more experienced at it?

You will be welcome in our project course

English Drama on Stage

A performance of a British or American classical or modern play or of selected scenes

aRths Theater am Rats präsentiert:
Q2 Projektkurs English 2023
Michael Wehrli
We open tomorrow night?!
A Scripted Talent Show

Tue, March 14, & Wed, March 15, 2023
7 p.m. Theatre Lounge
Rats High School
Donations Welcome

What we do:

- Reading modern plays
- Selecting one play for the performance
- Adopting character roles
- Rehearsing for the performance
- Setting in scene
- Performing the play in our Theatre Lounge

What we require of you:

- Acting, rehearsing and performing
- Commitment at the selection, preparation and performance of the play
- A written portfolio about the play and one of its characters as an active approach to and a preparation of the play

What you need to have as a subjects of reference: English

When we rehearse and perform: Q2 (three weekly lessons)

If no time slot is available in the timetable between 7.50 am and 3.30 pm, the course may be scheduled on Friday early afternoon. There will be at least one rehearsal at the weekend (Friday afternoon, Saturday morning and afternoon) before the two performances before the Easter vacations.